Vocational Scenario or Context	You delivered your session to a high standard and the panel would like you to conduct a thorough review that demonstrates your ability to look at all aspects of your own performance.

Task 1	You should gain feedback from the session that you delivered. You can gain this from a variety of sources including: • Feedback forms • Participants • Peers • Parents • Self Once gained, you should gather the feedback and use this to produce your own review of your performance. You should focus upon: • Your strengths • Your areas for improvement • Ways that you could improve • How the participants learnt within the session and what learning styles were visible You should include a review of your performance against The Liverpool Way model of coaching. You should refer to key elements of this and explain how you used these, why you chose not to use these or how they could have been used better. Where possible, you should refer to historic LFC manager's performances in comparison to your own performance and consider how you may coach differently if coaching an alternative sport.
